

REMARKS

The specification has been amended to correct a typographical error therein. No new matter is included in this amendment.

The above-noted amendments to claims 1, 22, 43, 45, and 49 are respectfully submitted in response to the official action dated July 5, 2005. These amendments are intended to clarify the substance of these claims and the inventions to which they are directed, and it is believed that in doing so all of the objections raised by the Examiner have now been overcome, and that all of the claims are now in condition for allowance. Note is taken of the fact that claims 66-82 have already been deemed allowable.

Claims 1-65 have been rejected under § 112, second paragraph. In the case of each of claims 1, 22, 43, 45, and 49, the Examiner contends that these claims are indefinite because in each case it is said to be unclear whether the structures recited in various portions of the claim comprise a part of the claimed invention. In each case, however, applicant has amended these claims to clarify the subject matter of the invention. For example, claim 1 is believed to clearly cover and specifically claim the dispenser and not the container which, however, is referred to in the preamble to this claim. The claims are thus intended to not claim the container, but to only refer to the container in relation to its actual intended use in the environment of the claimed dispenser. The same is true with respect to claims 43 and 49.

As for claims 22 and 45, however, these claims are directed to a dispensing system which is intended to claim the combination of a dispenser and a container. It is believed that this is accomplished by the above-noted amendments.

It is therefore respectfully submitted that all of these claims have been amended to overcome the Examiner's objections, and that each claim is therefore now clearly in condition for allowance, and such action is therefore respectfully solicited. If, however, for any reason the Examiner does not believe that such action can be taken at this time, it is respectfully requested that he telephone applicant's attorney at (908) 654-5000 in order to overcome any additional objections which he might have.

If there are any additional charges in connection with this requested amendment, the Examiner is authorized to charge Deposit Account No. 12-1095 therefor.

Dated: September 28, 2005
